| The hymns and songs of the Israelite Temple. They were the traditional praises of God | Songs of woe and misery who many people thought were composed by Jeremiah | A great Jewish hero whose visions were supposed to describe what would happen at the end of the world. | She was a Queen who bravely overcame the wicked Haman and saved her people from persecution |
| A story about a devoted young lady who was loyal to her dead husband's mother and who eventually found true love. | People thought Solomon wrote these. They are erotic love poetry which was interpreted in terms of God's love for Israel. | A chronicle of the history of Israel. A sort of alternative history to the better known one in the books of Samuel and Kings | This man was a scribe of the law of heaven. He came and taught the Israelite people how, in precise terms, they ought to serve God. |
| This man was a secular Governor of Jerusalem. He worked in close co-operation with Ezra the scribe. He repaired the walls of Jerusalem. | Traditional sayings of Israel. Wise words that were collected in short memorable sayings. | The story of a man who suffered a great deal. It says that God inflicted the suffering on him. He has long debates with his three friends | The real name of the author is Koheleth (the preacher). It is a very pessimistic book which points out that nothing ever really changes. It is all vanity. |
